

Allama Iqbal Open University AIOU BA AD
BS Solved Assignment NO 1 Autumn 2024
Code 1423 Compulsory English I

Q.1 Suppose you are hosting a famous TV talk show and you are required to interview a highly popular Pakistani female actress. Write at least ten questions which you will ask her to know about her incredible journey in the film industry.

Ans:

Interview Questions for a Popular Pakistani Female Actress

- 1. How did your journey in the film industry begin, and what inspired you to pursue acting as a career?
- 2. What were some of the most significant challenges you faced when you first entered the industry, and how did you overcome them?
- 3. Can you share a memorable moment or turning point in your career that you cherish the most?

- 4. You've worked on numerous projects. Which role has been the most rewarding for you, and why?
- 5. How do you prepare for emotionally intense or challenging roles? What is your process?
- 6. The Pakistani film industry has seen a resurgence in recent years. How do you see its growth, and what role do you think you have played in it?
- 7. Balancing personal and professional life can be difficult. How do you manage your time between your work and personal commitments?
- 8. Who has been your biggest inspiration in the entertainment world, and how have they influenced your journey?
- 9. What advice would you give to young, aspiring actors who wish to enter the film industry?
- 10. What are your future goals, and are there any upcoming projects or roles you are particularly excited about?

Q.2 Observe your mother's daily activities closely for a couple of weeks and then write a brief and concise paragraph about her daily routine. You are required to use at least ten sequence markers appropriately to create a both cohesive and coherent paragraph.

Ans:

Over the past couple of weeks, I carefully observed my mother's daily routine, which follows a structured yet flexible schedule. Each morning, she wakes up at 6:00 AM, starts by freshening up, and prepares a healthy breakfast for the family. After breakfast, she cleans the kitchen thoroughly, ensuring all dishes are washed and the countertops are spotless. Following this, she waters the plants, nurturing her small garden, which she tends to daily with great care. By around 7:30 AM, she organizes the laundry, sorting clothes and ensuring they are washed and hung out to dry. Around 8:00 AM, she begins working from home, focusing on her tasks such as answering emails, attending virtual meetings, and ensuring all deadlines are met. Around 12:00 PM, she takes a short break for lunch, which often includes a simple, home-cooked meal, ensuring everyone in the family is fed. After lunch, she cleans up the dining area and returns to work, focusing on ongoing projects and tasks. In the afternoon, she runs errands, like grocery shopping or visiting the market, to pick up essentials for the household. By 4:00 PM, she ensures that the house is tidy by sweeping, mopping, and organizing any leftover household chores. Around 5:00 PM, she prepares dinner, often experimenting with new recipes, ensuring a balanced and nutritious meal for the family. After dinner, she cleans the dining area, washes the dishes, and ensures the kitchen is in order. In the evenings, she spends quality time with us, either watching TV or reading a book. Finally, before heading to bed at 10:00 PM, she plans for the next day, ensuring everything is set and ready. Her dedication to both her work and family is truly admirable.

Q.3

Write question tags for the following sentences. Notice carefully whether the statement is positive or negative in each case. (10)

i. It is raining cats and dogs.....?

ii. She does not take interest in Mathematics.....?

iii. You were ignorant of classical literature,.....?

iv. She may attend a training session next week.....?

v. The rate of illiteracy increases day by day,.....?

vi. I was a friendly person but circumstances changed me,.....?

vii. We should follow the traffic rules,.....?

viii. They would strive hard to be successful.....?

ix. He is good at swimming.....?

x. She could handle any situation skillfully,.....?

Here are the question tags for each sentence, ensuring to identify whether the statement is positive or negative:

i. It is raining cats and dogs, isn't it?

ii. She does not take interest in Mathematics, does she?

iii. You were ignorant of classical literature, weren't you?

iv. She may attend a training session next week, may she?

v. The rate of illiteracy increases day by day, doesn't it?

vi. I was a friendly person but circumstances changed me, didn't I?

vii. We should follow the traffic rules, shouldn't we?

viii. They would strive hard to be successful, wouldn't they?

ix. He is good at swimming, isn't he?

x. She could handle any situation skillfully, couldn't she?

Q.4 Write an informal letter to one of your friends and congratulate her / him on successfully contesting provincial assembly elections as an independent candidate. Also suggest her/ him which political party he/she may join to serve the country and the nation in the best possible ways. Give logical arguments to convince your friend.

Ans;

[Your Address]

[City, Country]

[Postal Code]

[Email Address]

[Date]

Dear [Friend's Name],

I hope this letter finds you in the best of health and spirits! First and foremost, I want to extend my warmest congratulations on your incredible success in the provincial assembly elections as an independent candidate. I must say, your hard work, determination, and commitment to serving the people truly paid off. It's no small feat to achieve what you have, and I couldn't be prouder of you!

Your victory is a testament to your passion for making a positive impact in the lives of others. You've always been someone who believes in standing up for what is right and advocating for the betterment of the community. I am confident that you will bring the same dedication and enthusiasm to your new role as a member of the provincial assembly.

That said, while you've achieved this milestone as an independent candidate, I'd like to suggest that joining a well-established political party could offer more structured support and greater resources to further your vision and goals. Political parties have larger platforms, established networks, and access to crucial funding, all of which can amplify your ability to bring meaningful change.

Joining a party like [Party Name] could provide you with the backing of experienced leaders who share your vision and values. They have a track record of pushing for policies that address the core issues faced by our people—whether it's education, healthcare, or infrastructure development. By aligning with such a party, you'll have the strength of a collective effort, as well as access to wider influence and decision-making power.

Moreover, the party can offer you a structured platform to collaborate with like-minded individuals who are equally committed to serving the nation. Your expertise and dedication will complement the party's efforts, ensuring that your constituency gets the representation it truly deserves.

I know whatever decision you make will be with the country's best interest at heart, and I have no doubt you'll continue to make a positive impact wherever you go. Wishing you all the best as you embark on this new journey!

Take care,
[Your Name]

Q.5 The following instances contain some highlighted words, guess the meaning of these words and use them into sentences of your own. (10)

- i. It had been raining hard through the night so the ground was saturated.
- ii. Some people think that my little brother is annoying because he asks so many questions, but I think that he just has an inquisitive nature.
- iii. It is hard to catch a football that has been fumbled because the oblong shape of the ball makes it difficult to predict where it will bounce.
- iv. "I wish I had brought my spectacles," the old librarian remarked as she squinted and strained to read the text.
- v. After being bitten by snake, the small boy writhed in pain on the ground.

Ans:

Here are the meanings and example sentences for each highlighted word:

i. Saturated – Completely soaked with water.

Sentence: The rain had been falling for hours, leaving the fields completely saturated.

ii. Inquisitive – Eager to learn or know.

Sentence: Her inquisitive nature led her to ask countless questions about the world around her.

iii. Oblong – A shape that is longer in one direction than the other.

Sentence: The football bounced unpredictably due to its oblong shape.

iv. Squinted – To look with partially closed eyes to see more clearly.

Sentence: The librarian squinted as she tried to read the small print in the dim light.

v. Writhed – Twisted or squirmed, especially in pain.

Sentence: The child writhed on the ground after being stung by the bee.

Q.6 Express your agreement as well as disagreement with the following issues. Choose a different expression each time.(10)

i. Economic instability in Pakistan will be tackled efficiently this year.

ii. The greatest obstacle to literacy is overpopulation.

iii. Arabic language should be introduced at the grass root level.

iv. Privatization is a solution of many economic issues.v. Girls perform better than boys in the field of social sciences.

Ans:

Here are expressions of agreement and disagreement with the provided issues:

i. Economic instability in Pakistan will be tackled efficiently this year.

Agreement: I believe there are positive signs of improvement, and with effective policies, stability can be achieved.

Disagreement: I have doubts about whether economic challenges can be fully addressed in such a short time.

ii. The greatest obstacle to literacy is overpopulation.

Agreement: Overpopulation does put significant pressure on resources and access to education.

Disagreement: While overpopulation is a factor, there are other important barriers, such as poverty and lack of infrastructure.

iii. Arabic language should be introduced at the grass root level.

Agreement: Introducing Arabic at a foundational level could promote cultural understanding and access to important texts.

Disagreement: I believe that focusing on national and regional languages should take precedence to foster local development.

iv. Privatization is a solution to many economic issues.

Agreement: Privatization can lead to increased efficiency and investment in many sectors.

Disagreement: However, there are concerns about monopolies and the welfare of public interests being compromised.

v. Girls perform better than boys in the field of social sciences.

Agreement: Research suggests girls tend to excel due to their strong analytical and communication skills.

Disagreement: While girls often excel, boys can perform just as well with proper support and encouragement.

Q.7 Look at the current political situation of Pakistan and make ten predictions about the democratic future of the country politics.

Ans:

Here are ten predictions about Pakistan's democratic future based on its current political situation:

1. Increased Political Stability: Pakistan is likely to witness greater political stability as political institutions continue to mature and mature democratic norms take root.

2. Strong Opposition Presence: A more vibrant and effective opposition will play a crucial role in holding the government accountable, fostering a healthier democratic environment.
3. Youth Empowerment in Politics: The younger generation will become more engaged, bringing new perspectives and pushing for reforms that prioritize issues like education, employment, and governance.
4. Improved Electoral Processes: Pakistan is expected to strengthen its electoral system, reducing irregularities and ensuring free and fair elections.
5. Continued Civil-Military Relations: A balanced relationship between civilian governments and the military will play a critical role in maintaining democratic governance.
6. Focus on Economic Reforms: Economic policies, including poverty alleviation, job creation, and improved governance, will take center stage in democratic debates.
7. Empowerment of Marginalized Groups: Marginalized communities, particularly women, will gain more representation and influence, leading to greater inclusion in political processes.
8. Rise in Political Accountability: A stronger push for transparency, anti-corruption measures, and accountability mechanisms will contribute to good governance.

9. Revival of Independent Institutions: Strengthened and independent institutions, such as the judiciary and media, will be key in ensuring checks and balances in a democratic setup.

10. Enhanced Bilateral Relations: Pakistan will maintain democratic ties with global powers, focusing on regional cooperation and engagement with international organizations to strengthen its democratic credentials.

These predictions reflect both challenges and opportunities in Pakistan's evolving democratic landscape.

Q.8 Suppose your younger brother has won scholarship from Higher Education Commission of Pakistan and has started getting education in a Malaysian University. Write a letter and give him advice to utilize this opportunity in the best possible ways.

Ans:

[Your Address]

[City, Country]

[Email Address]

[Date]

Dear Brother,

I hope you are doing well and adjusting smoothly to life in Malaysia. Congratulations on earning the scholarship from the Higher Education Commission of Pakistan! I am truly proud of you and your achievement. This is an incredible opportunity, and I want to give you some advice on how to make the most of it.

Firstly, take your studies seriously. You've worked hard to reach this point, and now that you have this opportunity, it's essential to focus on your academics. Strive for excellence and aim to excel in your coursework. Remember, the knowledge and skills you gain here will shape your future career.

Secondly, immerse yourself in the culture and environment. Traveling abroad provides a unique chance to learn about different traditions, perspectives, and ways of life. Engage with local students, explore Malaysian culture, and make the most of this international experience. It will broaden your horizons and enhance your personal growth.

Thirdly, network and build connections. Meet fellow students from diverse backgrounds and learn from their experiences. Establishing connections with professors, mentors, and fellow students can open doors to future collaborations, research opportunities, and career growth.

Additionally, manage your time effectively. Balancing studies with personal life can be challenging, so create a schedule that allows you to stay organized and focused. Prioritize your tasks and make sure you allocate enough time for both academics and personal well-being.

Lastly, stay motivated and ambitious. This scholarship is not just an opportunity for higher education but a stepping stone toward achieving your dreams. Keep setting goals, stay determined, and believe in your abilities. Your hard work will pave the way for a bright future.

I am always here to support you, so don't hesitate to reach out if you need any guidance. Wishing you all the best for your studies and the journey ahead!

Take care,
[Your Name]